

THE WEATHER

Thunderstorms in east this afternoon, followed by generally fair to light and Tuesday; warmer in east tonight.

When Herbert Hoover tossed his hat in the Presidential ring, a lot of other entries didn't shout for joy and sing. In Europe's war-scarred countries, he helped starved millions eat. So we find him in the front mart, down on South Water street!

Medill McCormick, from Illinois—One of the first Progressive boys! The Senator always has liked to mix in the wonderful game of politics.

And now Kentucky has a lively "race" son. A man of strength, with record of a duty nobly done! His name is in the record, and he's spending half a day rambling through the stockyards to pass the time away.

Old Hanson from Seattle, Loves the Helsinki to battle! We want to not to dilly-dally, While Old's prowling up the alley.

Here's Minnesota's grand old man, Built on Nature's broadest plan; Knute Nelson is thriftest of Sweden, So he shops at Field's to meet his needs!

Hiram Johnson's got some "rep." Full of ginger, life and pep; In California's sunny clime, None, they say, can beat his time. He's been traveling through the states Gunning after delegates!

Oh list, to Lodge's key-note speech: His clarion tones resound and reach Each delegate and delegate. Within the Coliseum's gate! This Massachusetts Senator Of golden words, has plentiful store!

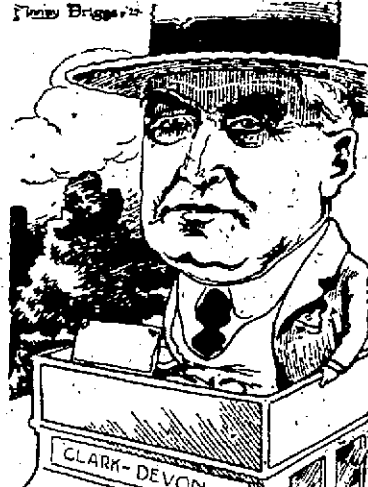

Silent, smooth and quite astute, From Utah comes the suave Reed Snoot. It's easy for him to keep always sweet For he comes from the state of the sugar beet!

Notice William Howard Taft, Slightly bulky, fond and apt. In Chicago at Convention, What for? Oh, he didn't mention. Most mysterious of men, President once—p'raps again!

Senator Borah of Idaho! A Johnson-boomer, as well you know. Of no man I'm afraid, And I always call a spade a spade! Here a rapid waltz and talker—well, Just one his race in the Congress Hotel!

Senator Harding's a newspaper man, Bringin' his own Presidential plan. For winning the coveted G. O. P. badge on Michigan boulevard. Note the hopeful look in the Senator's eyes!

Standing before the Art Institute, Strong of body and shiny of boot—Awaiting the turn of Fortune's card. Behold on Michigan boulevard This soldier-statesman with record good. Meet Major-General Leonard Wood!

Lowden Leaps to Leadership, Fate In Johnson's Veto

Key to Situation Is Strategy in Camp of California Senator; Missouri Scandal Sufficient Food for Democratic Orators.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1920, by Janesville Gazette)

CHICAGO, JUNE 7.—Governor Frank Lowden of Illinois has the best chance of winning the republican nomination for the presidency because he has the most skillful and powerful political reserves in the convention, but his fate is entirely in the hands of Senator Hiram Johnson of California who holds the veto power.

The key to the situation is the strategy in the Johnson camp. One sentence from him—"I will not sanction the nomination of anyone for whom delegates were bought"—would crystallize the undertone of whispers into a noisy apprehension that the Missouri scandal is sufficient food for democratic orators to make doubtful a victory in November. William Hale Thompson, national committeeman from Illinois, made such a statement as he bolted the Lowden household. Senator Borah of Idaho has expressed ominous doubts about the effect of the Missouri exposure on the Lowden boom. But the new "old guard," being possessed of a solid determination to put over a tried and true Republican such as they hold Frank Lowden to be are undismayed.

So the plan is to let the Lowden movement run its natural course, let the balloting go on and see whether the convention is disposed to be concerned over the purchase of delegates in Missouri or whether it accepts as final the reputation of those delegates by the Illinois governor himself.

To Keep Balloting Going
An agreement has been reached between the Lowden, Wood and Johnson forces to keep the balloting going, to ten ballots if necessary, to ascertain the exact strength of those three leaders. Dark horses and other near-candidates will not be permitted to reap the benefits of a deadlock until it is absolutely demonstrated that none of the three can win.

Dismissing for the moment the second stage of the convention in which the dark horses—Hoover, Hughes, Taft, Lenroot, Allen and Sproul—would be considered, the first stage of the fight presents two opportunities for Hiram Johnson. He can make a fight on the convention floor against the treaty of peace and (Continued on page 4)

Late Politics

Monday Noon.

By STEPHEN BOLLES.
Chicago, June 7.—With the arrival of more delegations and some coherency in the situation being apparent, Lowden, his gained during the day, though many are fearful that the money expose is a fatal weakness. It is likely that Senators Whitehead and Lockney may both vote for him. Wisconsin's delegation is all here and the 24 votes for La Follette will stick until they see some place where these votes would nominate a progressive. If their hands were untied now there would be a great split-up with votes for Johnson, Wood, Lowden and two for Senator Lodge.

In the voting tomorrow Senator Lenroot is sure of one vote from Wyoming and probably some scattering. The senator is busy with the platform as a member of the advisory committee. With all of the drift to Lowden it may be said that he is far from a nomination. The dark horse, or one of the favorite sons continued to be the unnamed nominee, with 72 hours remaining in which to settle the contest.

Chairmanship of Convention Is in Lively Squabble

McCormick and Beveridge Are Most Prominently Mentioned for Guidance of Convention Which Opens Tomorrow.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, JUNE 7.—The eminence of the republican convention which begins its sessions at noon tomorrow, apparently worked today to further becloud instead of clarify the question of who is to be the nominee for president.

Wood, Lowden, and Johnson supporters were driving hard for the advantage. But the best claims for any of the three amounted to little more than one-fourth of the total delegate strength on the first ballot and it takes a majority to nominate. With prospects of a deadlock thus becoming better hourly, favorite sons and dark horse possibilities increased their activities and further tangled the knotted reins of control for which the party leaders are wrestling.

The outlook helped too, to enliven the squabble over contested convention seats and the struggle over permanent organization of the convention. At least some, and possibly all of the 137 contests decided by the national committee will be brought before the credentials committee for a rehearing and a few may be decided finally on the convention floor itself.

Chairman in Doubt.
Realizing the power which might be wielded by a friendly staff of permanent conference officials, the managers for all the candidates are studying carefully before they jump one way or the other in the choice of a permanent committee. Senator McCormick of Illinois and former Senator Beveridge of Indiana are most prominently mentioned for the chairmanship.

Most of the leaders agree that the situation as regards platform—at least is beginning to take form. Only a few of the more troublesome planks remain to be agreed on and although some sharp struggles are in prospect no one seems to think that any of them will lead to serious consequences.

League Plank Troublesome.
There were indications today that league of nations plank, over which one of the bitterest convention fights had been predicted, might soon be given the approval of all the leaders except a small group of mild reservation senators. The Johnson-Borah irreconcilables have a plank of their own ready to submit if the platform conference does not yield a result acceptable to them, but they indicated confidence today that no fight by them would be necessary.

Hoover May Be Nominated for Vice President

New Angle to Convention Preliminary—Johnson Fights With Back to Wall—Sproul, Governor of Pennsylvania, Shows Strength

(By STEPHEN BOLLES)

CHICAGO, JUNE 7.—Hoover began to appear in a new race today. Strong talk of making him a vice-presidential candidate began to sift through the walls. It is a likely solution of the situation. With Johnson out of the way, California and the Pacific coast would have half the ticket in Hoover. No one doubts his nomination if he would accept. He would get the big woman vote "almost to a man," was the general opinion. Hoover's being out of the scramble has aided him greatly. And it is a scramble.

It made the men who have believed in maintaining a shred of dignity about the presidency and vice-presidency, sick at heart, to see the candidates here, pulling for delegates. It has never been done before except when Roosevelt started the ruction of 1912.

Red Apples and Office.
A candidate for the great office of vice-president of the United States stood in a booth at the Congress hotel all Sunday afternoon and passed out red apples to his canvassers. He helped amuse the crowd a little. Here was a great dearth of van devils usually provided and stimulated by the use of the apples. In the evening the Columbus Ohio Club of 65 men, sang a few songs in the great Florentine room, the most pretentious of all headquarters where Senator Harding's hope is hung on the wall. That was the only spirited touch of the evening, or at other words dull Sunday.

Bitterness Increases
Increased bitterness characterized the preliminaries of the National Republican convention with the arrival of several hundred delegates and political visitors Sunday and Monday. Having torpedoes his way as far as the front Hiram Johnson continued the submarine work. The noise and activity of any headquarters has been largely at his. Conspicuously displayed were bulletins showing that North Carolina would vote for him following the primary Saturday. These delegates had already been instructed for Jeter C. Pritchard of the old north state. It may be said that Senator Johnson is fighting with his back to the wall. He is to fire some heavy shots at the mass meeting tonight particularly on the treaty, but it is believed this will be futile.

Lowden Stock Rises
There was a general rise in Lowden stock last night. The members of the National Committee free from the now completed contests, began to show up for him strong. Lowden (Continued on page 9)

LA FOLLETTE IS O. K. AFTER OPERATION

(By Associated Press.)
Rochester, Minn., June 7.—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin was operated upon at St. Mary's hospital here today for removal of an ailment. The operation was successful, according to announcement made by surgeons, but it was more serious than anticipated. An official bulletin issued after the operation said the senator's condition "is good and he is resting as easily as can be expected."

Typographers Canvass Vote in Recent Elections
Indianapolis, Ind., June 7.—The board of canvassers of the International Typographical Union met here today to tabulate officially the vote cast in the recent election for international officers.

Full of animation, in joyous fighting mood. The son stands in Chicago, where his father stood. Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., won his laurels in the war. And now he'll mix in politics, like his dad in days of yore!

In the Congress Hotel, Elizabeth I encountered the cause of the Lowden boom. The grip of his hand and his honest face. Give a hint of his strength in the "race"—He plays the game for all it's worth! And to Illinois he's the salt of the earth!

DRY AMENDMENT, ENFORCEMENT ACT, UPHOLD BY COURT

LONG DELAYED DECISION IN PROHIBITION CASE IS GIVEN.

BADGER CASE UP

Injunctions Restraining Interference With Manitowoc Company Dissolved.

Washington, June 7.—Both the federal prohibition amendment and the enforcement act passed by congress were held constitutional today by the supreme court.

The court dismissed petitions filed by the state of Rhode Island to have federal officials enjoined from enforcing prohibition in that state.

The court also dismissed an injunction proceeding brought by the state of New Jersey to prevent enforcement of prohibition within that state.

Injunctions restraining prohibition officials from interfering with the Manitowoc Products company, a Wisconsin corporation, in the manufacture of beer containing more than half of one percent of alcohol were dissolved by the court.

Chief Justice Hughes delivered the opinion of the court.

The court upheld federal court decrees dissolving proceedings brought to enjoin the prohibition amendment from being enforced against Christian Feigenbaum, a brewer of Newark, N. J.

Federal court decrees denying similar injunctions sought by the St. Louis Brewing association likewise were affirmed.

The court's opinion was short, setting forth only the court's conclusions. Chief Justice Hughes rendered a supplemental opinion concurring in the one rendered by Justice Van Devanter but going further into the issues involved.

Kentucky Decision O. K.

Federal court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings instituted by the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse company of Louisville, Ky., to enjoin enforcement of the act against it were sustained by the court.

Injunctions sought by George C. Dempsey, a Boston wholesale liquor dealer, to restrain enforcement of the enforcement act against him were also denied by the court.

MASON CONTRACTOR IS CALLED BY DEATH

John E. Shields, prominent mason contractor, a life-long resident of this city, passed away at 10:30 a. m. Sunday morning at his home, 604 Fourth avenue, after an illness of one week with pneumonia.

He was born in this city in 1850. He married Elizabeth Kopsa in 1887. She preceded him in death some time ago. Those who are left to mourn his death are two children, Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and Mrs. C. Christensen, Chicago.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday morning from the home, and at 9:45 at St. Mary's church. Interment will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Six percent has been the maximum legal rate of interest for 100 years on the island.

LIFELONG RESIDENT OF COUNTY SUCCEUMS

Mrs. Nancy Maria Inman Oakley, a life-long resident of Rock county, passed away Sunday morning at her home in the town of Milton after an illness of one year.

Her husband was born in Milton, Aug. 4, 1844. She was the oldest daughter of John Inman who was a pioneer settler of Wisconsin. She and her husband had five children: Thomas Oakley of Birmingham, England; Mr. Oakley passed away 14 years ago.

Five children were born to the union, five are dead three having passed away in infancy. Those who survive are: Thomas, William, John and George Oakley, five daughters, Mrs. Anna Oakley, Mrs. Katherine Oakley, Mrs. May Richards, Mrs. Ida Page and Mrs. Phoebe Johnson; three sisters and four brothers, 31 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at the farm in the town of Milton at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Milton Junction cemetery.

PLYMOUTH

[By Gazette Correspondent.] Plymouth, June 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Perkins, Newark, N. J., the guests of relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Royce are entertaining the latter's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McDonald, Chicago, this week.

Mrs. Genevieve Horkey closed a very successful school year on Tuesday with a picnic. A picnic dinner was served at noon and Mrs. Horkey treated all to ice cream in the afternoon.

Joseph Baynor, La Prairie, spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Royce.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Millard left a few days ago for Iowa where they will visit the former's brother and family.

Master Everett Burrows is spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Arnold, Beloit.

A number from here went to Rice Lake, Wis., this week, with good results.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Van Ranken, Janesville, were callers at the John Emerson and Jack Kettla homes on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Emerson were Broadhead on Tuesday.

A large number from here attended the "Memorial Day" exercises at Oxfordville on Sunday afternoon given in honor of the men and boys of the three last wars.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Arnold and son, Beloit, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charley Millard.

Memorial day was observed in the usual way at Plymouth cemetery, with the cleaning of lots and decorating.

Ration Sugar To Be Commenced

New York, June 5.—A joint distribution committee to ration sugar to confectioners throughout the country will be formed here in a few days, according to a special assistant to Attorney General Palmer.

Farmers to meet—Joint meeting of the farm bureau, members of the township of Rock and Janesville will be held at the court house here Thursday night. The meeting will take up other questions of the bureau.

NEW BANK VISIBLE

The temporary structure erected over the sidewalk on West Milwaukee street, to protect pedestrians while work was being done in building the new home of the Merchants and Savings bank, was torn down today by Ben Enlow.

EDGERTON

[By Gazette Correspondent.] Edgerton, June 7.—The funeral of Freddie Griep, who died in England, was held Sunday under the auspices of the American Legion, and was the greatest in the city's history in point of attendance.

The German Lutheran church, where the ceremony was held, was packed to its capacity and hundreds were unable to gain admission. The floral offerings presented by the different patriotic societies were profuse. The arrangements were carried out in perfect form. The audience was made up of people from all walks of life.

The American Legion members were in force in full uniform. The exercises at the cemetery were carried out in perfect military custom. The attendance of the Service Star Legion and the Woman's Relief Corps was particularly noticeable. The members of the G. A. R. also attended in a body, as well as the mayor and city council.

The march from the church to the cemetery, led by the Edgerton band, was an impressive sight. The number in attendance at the cemetery was estimated at fully 1,000. After the religious services conducted by the Rev. Mr. Spillman, the firing squad of overseas veterans under command of Knuth Lutz, fired their volley of salute and the burial was completed.

The last act in this ceremony was when the officer who escorted the body from the east, removed the flag from the casket and presented it to the parents, saying: "Your country presents you with this flag that your son died for."

City Treasurer Diehl.

M. H. Ford, treasurer of the city of Edgerton, died Sunday of paralysis. Mr. Ford has been a sufferer for some time and his death was not unexpected. He will be buried at Watertown, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Ford was a quiet unassuming man, who will be missed from the business circles of the city. He leaves several brothers and sisters and grown-up children.

Mrs. Ernest Ball and daughter, Christine, left for their home in Baltimore, Md., this morning, after several days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Clark. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, who will make an indefinite stay in this city. It is thought that the change may be beneficial to Mr. Clark's health. Their son, Wayne, will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Butts, (Mrs. Doris Clark) at Indianapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Butts came from the southern city to bid their parents good bye for some time.

Mrs. C. H. McIntyre, Chicago, who has visited with her mother, Mrs. F. H. Coon, and Miss Catherine Hedges, Mrs. Coon's niece of Padonia, Pa., returned to their respective homes Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. Ramblatt, Beloit, and Mrs. Reynolds, Chicago, were guests of Mrs. T. J. McDonald, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Fakler attended the Memorial service at Janesville, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McDonald, St. Paul, Minn., visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McDonald, Sunday.

Howard Young, Janesville, was a Sunday guest of friends in this city. Miss Ruth Birkmeyer entertained a party of friends from Beloit over the week-end.

Harv Grass, Charley Schultz, and Misses Elsie and Iara Braum, motored from Milwaukee, Saturday, and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rodenz over Sunday.

HUGHES IS HOPE WITH WOOD OUT OF THE RUNNING

DAVID LAWRENCE SAYS LOGIC WILL ELIMINATE ALL BUT SIX MEN.

JOHNSON OUT

Hoover May be Selected on the "H Surely Can Win" Idea.

BY DAAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1920, by Janesville Gazette.

Chicago, June 7.—Logic is an irresistible force once a Republican national convention is assembled.

Logic picked Hughes in 1916, before it was known whether he would resign from the supreme court to become a candidate.

Logic will select the next Republican nominee and will reject all aspirants except Charles Evans Hughes, William Howard Taft, Herbert Hoover, Leonard Wood, Gov. Sprout and Gov. Lowden.

These six men are committed to the ratification of the League of Nations, with the Lodge reservations, and are in accord with the conservative and traditionally vital principles of Republicanism.

Is Stampede Proof? Senator Hiram Johnson doesn't come in that category. He is a real traitor, and he is considered radical on questions of taxation and other matters. He will try to stampede the Republican convention into electing Hoover in 1924 and again in 1928, the regular Republican national convention is stampede-proof.

The first ballot would disclose a deadlock between Leonard Wood and Gov. Lowden. Prolongation of the balloting will mean the gradual elimination of both. In favor of another set of contenders, Herbert Hoover, former Justice Hughes and former President Taft would profit by the tendency to turn from Lowden or Wood.

Should a nomination still fail to be made after several ballots, an extraordinary opportunity would come to the Penrose-led or Penrose-directed delegation from Pennsylvania to exhibit to the convention the progressive record of Gov. Sprout.

Is a "dry" on the liquor question, has made a record as governor of Pennsylvania, and is a personality who would keep things humming during the campaign.

Sprout's Weakness? Republicans in both the conservative and radical groups like Sprout but the old line politicians put down the old line objection about "coming from Pennsylvania," which is supposed usually to have some bearing on the soundness of Pennsylvania's vote anyway, and the proverbial necessity of picking a man from a pivotal or doubtful state.

But the Republican are confident that the entire eastern half of the country is as sure as Pennsylvania, so that this rock-ribbed state is no more of a handicap than would Indiana or Ohio. At least logically it should be no handicap.

When Senator Penrose mentioned Senator Knox for the presidential nomination, it was not urged against him that he "came from Pennsylvania." But the real leaders know that Knox couldn't.

That Knox couldn't be the next Republican nominee is going to favor the ratification of the league treaty with the Lodge reservations. Gov. Sprout meets these specifications.

Logic is in politics touches always on the popularity and individual appeal of the candidate. It is most significant that Herbert Hoover is popular, and that he "surely would win." If nominated, they say it in almost the same breath as they say he would be nominated. Logic has considered the popularity and advertisement of a candidate, and there is no more widely advertised personality than that of Herbert Hoover.

Hoover Can Win In objection to Hoover, the line of argument is taken that he is pro-British, that he always lived abroad, and didn't vote in the United States, and that he hasn't been a declared Republican candidate, but if Mr. Hoover were the Republican choice now Republicans would be found saying these things, and certainly few Democrats would begin at this late date to say things about the former food administrator, the man in whom Woodrow Wilson bestowed such confidence before and after the European war.

Indeed, skillful politics would mean the selection of Hoover in a year in which Democratic votes were needed to win. But of abundant confidence—any good Republican can win—that's the prevailing idea.

Hughes' Future The chances of picking Hughes again depend to a large extent on what happens to the Wood delegates if the general issue of nomination, Frank M. Hitchcock, former postmaster-general, who managed the Hughes movement on the floor of the last convention, would probably influence toward Hughes.

Mr. Hughes would probably readily lean he would toward other candidates. Suppose it were assumed that Leonard Wood would be elected, it would be a Republican nominee is elected. It's a job he would enjoy almost as much as the presidency.

Wood's strength, in the convention may control the nomination of the next candidate if it becomes apparent that he himself cannot be nominated.

Lowden and "Old Guard" Briefly, the old guard would like to see Gov. Lowden named, but to accomplish it, if it can't develop a majority spontaneously, the choice will turn to Hughes. Sprout, Hoover, Taft, with their chances in the order named.

CONVENTION NOTES "Barney" Gann of Little Washington, Pennsylvania is here "simply as a representative of the consumers," as he puts it. He has a room in a private family in Lancaster, Pa., and is from Chicago in his Ford. He claims that our unrest is due to the quality of five-cent cigars, and urges government control of silk shirts and Victrolas.

The caustic severity of the comments on Hearst about Hoover, have made him a popular figure. He is a tall, pale, delegate in a Prince Albert coat, huge imitation, tortoise shell spectacles, and a driftnut of magazines.

"I think women should have a voice in government affairs, but I don't think I can stand this combination of a woman's voice and a woman's shooting gallery cigars," remarked a delicate looking statesman wearing a purple butterfly cravat, as he withdrew from a mixed crowd at the Sherman.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HONOR THEIR DEAD With flowers, music and exercises appropriate to the occasion, the Royal Neighbors held a memorial service for the late Arthur M. Church, president of the lodge, and J. W. Van Buren, secretary, at the Woodmen camp, 355 of Modern Woodmen, and Crystal and Triumphant Camps of Royal Neighbors, held tribute to their honored dead. In a joint memorial service yesterday afternoon in West side Old Hall.

Past Consul Arthur M. Church presided at the meeting, and J. W. Van Buren gave the memorial address. He especially emphasized the idea of memory being an attitude of respect for the dead.

The Royal Neighbors, conducted the service, which was held in the vacant hall at each name was read. Eight from Crystal Camp and 12 from Triumphant Camp were so honored.

Walter Helms played a saxophone solo, which was the prominent melody, and a quartet consisting of Mesdames Gen. Lovans, T. L. Men and Bertha Crooks gave several selections. The committee of women who arranged the service, were Mrs. J. M. Brecher, Mrs. L. M. Lovans, Bertha Crooks and Alice Mason. From the hall the names of Mesdames L. J. Nickerson, W. Ludolf, L. Walters and Anna Dickerson from the Triumphant Camp.

MONROE

Monroe, June 4.—Captain J. M. Frees, who erected the soldiers' and sailors' monument on the public square here, died at San Diego, Cal., May 28, according to word received here. Mr. Frees had been an invalid for several years. He was born August 3, 1846, in Maine. When a small boy Mr. Frees moved with his stepfather, N. H. Allen, to this city, where for a number of years he engaged in the retail lumber business. At one time he was partner in the Kirby Carpenter Lumber Company, of Chicago, with mills at Menominee, Mich., and he was also interested in many retail yards and banks in Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska.

During the Civil war he enlisted in the thirty-eighth Wisconsin infantry, serving as first lieutenant and later as captain.

In memory of the soldiers and sailors of the Civil war, Mr. Frees had a monument erected on the northwest corner of the square. An example of the generosity of Mr. Fre

Appleton.—The Rev. Ulrich Danner, stationed at St. Joseph church here, celebrated the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood with services attended by about 50 priests. Father Ulrich, who has been a member of the Capuchin order for 32 years, was ordained in Milwaukee.

Chippewa Falls.—The city council has appointed P. T. Huntington, city engineer at Menomonie, Wis., as city engineer here.

Manitowish.—The C. Heiss Coal company has closed some of its docks here, cutting its business in two because of inability to get coal.

league of nations or else he can attack the Lowden candidacy as the product of money power.

The members of the committee who will draft the republican platform are practically agreed upon the plank of the treaty of Versailles. They will favor the treaty of peace and the league of nations as an aspiration and will commit the republican senators for opposing adoption in the form in which President Wilson submitted the document but the ratification of the treaty and the league will be favored "with reservations." Now that doesn't mean "with the League reservations," it means what is simply "with reservations." That excludes all the quibbling about the phraseology of some of the League reservations and doesn't tie the hands of the president of the United States if he happens to be a republican and wants to alter the program to meet contingencies in the foreign situation as they arise. Ratification "with reservations" will be a simple, all-inclusive expression of republican intentions.

Johnson Opposes Plank. But Hiram Johnson is absolutely opposed to such a plank. Yet whether he will consider it worth while to risk his chances for the nomination on that plank depends upon his sincerity. His ardent admirers insist that he would rather lose the presidency than recede one inch—he will fight it out, they say, against the treaty with or without any reservations. But if he should wage a fight on this convention floor, he would certainly be over-ridden as this convention is too wise to oppose a simple statement such as "ratification with reservations" when it isn't even sure how far those reservations can go. So if Johnson made his fight and lost, the veteran politicians are confident that he would consider himself a loser. The moral damage of defeat on this big thing on which Johnson has waged his primary campaign would be irretrievable. The supporters of Lowden, Wood and the rest don't think Hiram Johnson cares to do it. Nor do they believe he will assail Lowden on the Missouri exposure because of the effect that it would have on his own political future. While Johnson might thus eliminate Lowden the resentment produced among the Lowden supporters would be sufficient to prevent the selection of Johnson.

Johnson Holds Club. Which ever way one turns it is Hiram Johnson who has the veto in his hands. Johnson will not let Lowden and turn the convention to consideration of dark horses. His own oratory may win him support but the rank and file of the politicians think him too radical and too impulsive to be the republican nominee. Plankly they don't like him. And he knows it. Therefore he had everything to gain and very little to lose by open warfare. And that's what is coming—Johnson on the war path, and the convention, like a big jury, deciding whether the Missouri exposure is a flash in the pan or a serious flaw in republican hopes. Men like A. T. Hart of Kentucky, the new Penace of the situation, who is for Lowden, do not consider the Johnson explosion can affect the republican ticket, reasons the republican supporters of Leonard Wood and Hiram Johnson make good use of Brother McAdoo's pull with organized labor and his political versatility as they argue that if the democrats nominate McAdoo "it won't be such a cinch" and that the Chicago convention should not make the mistake of nominating a conservative. But it's Lowden's nomination this time.

Little Progress Made. Inside politics like inside baseball has its mysticisms and passes but thus far the captains of the various political teams have made little progress around the bases.

Conference between the respective managers have been held with the idea of persuading rivals they had better "ve up" trying and throw their strength where it will do most "good." Supporters of Senator Hiram Johnson, for instance, are saying to Lowden men that the Illinois governor's vote against Roosevelt is a blot on his record and that if the Johnson men wouldn't admit it but if it comes to a show down they would be for Leonard Wood rather than Lowden.

Two Classes of Delegates. On the other hand, there are two classes of Johnson delegates who will stick to the finish and those who are from states which voted overwhelmingly for Johnson but who personally don't like Johnson because of his unpopularity with the political leaders of the republican party. These Johnson delegates must vote for the California senator as long as there is a chance for him to win but the managers of other candidates are already trading with them for second choice and third choices.

Lowden People Confident. The Lowden people continue confident. The Wood people realize they have been slipping in the last two days but they too know that if Hiram Johnson wants to do it, he can make Leonard Wood the nominee. This would cause considerable confusion among the members of the new "Old Guard" who by the way comprise the managers of the Lowden boom, men like A. T. Hart, national committeeman from Kentucky and John Hammond, the new boss of Oklahoma. They fought the Wood managers in many a state and won. If General Wood is the nominee, it will mean the fall of this new "Old Guard," their political future depends upon the success of Lowden. Campaign itself will mean the distribution of offices in the event of victory something thoroughly understood by the delegates with an eye also to the future.

This is Orange Week

Special Offerings at All Stores

Luscious Oranges

Straight From Sunny California

Carloads of sweet, juicy, golden oranges—just newly ripened on the trees in California and shipped by fast freight across the country, are being sold this week in all first class stores at attractive prices.

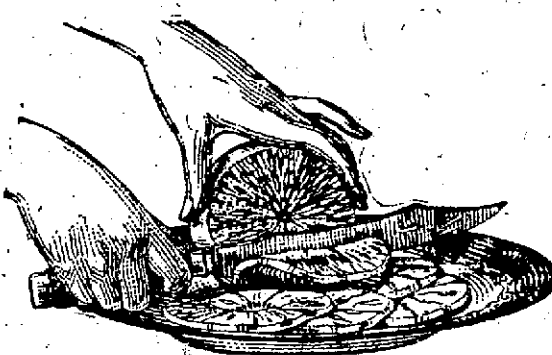

Oranges were never better, so there was never a better time to buy.

Try the modern way of keeping families well in your home—the "Health Basket" full of oranges always within reach, which will tempt people to eat freely of this body-regulating, blood-clarifying fruit.

Oranges eaten with breakfast, lunch or dinner help to digest the entire meal, thus making all foods more efficient.

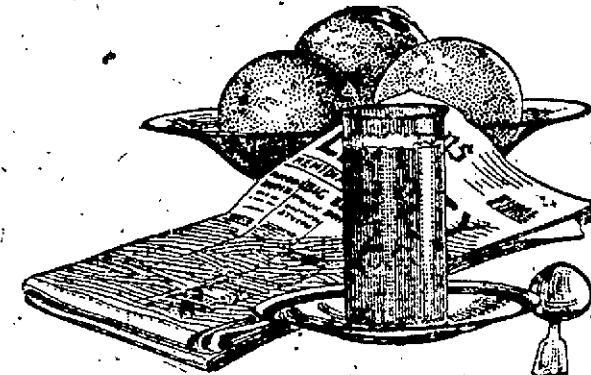

Buy Now—Use Like This

Slice and serve for breakfast with or without sugar. Oranges used this way make an excellent appetizer.

Cut up, or sliced, oranges are salad and dessert in one. You can save the cost of either when you serve oranges like this.

Orange juice is one of the most healthful of drinks. Try it when fatigued. Make it yourself. Drink it any time, day or night.

Sunkist

Uniformly Good Oranges

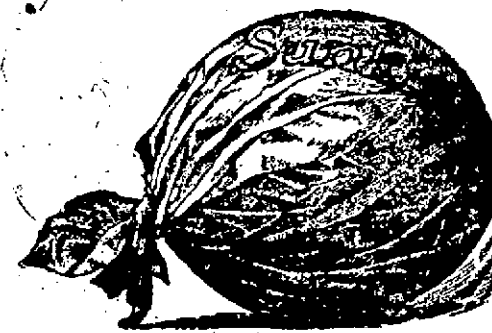

"Sunkist" are the uniformly good oranges chosen from California's famous groves. They are practically seedless, juicy, tender—the best oranges for slicing, cutting, or preparing orange juice. They are the most convenient oranges to eat whole because they are easy to peel, firm and meaty. You need no sugar when you eat "Sunkist."

Try them now and look for these advantages—you'll always want "Sunkist" thereafter.

COUNTY ADDS 23 TO RANKS OF TEACHERS

Ninth Annual Commencement of Training School Great Success.

Many factors entered to make the ninth annual commencement exercises of the Rock county teachers training school, held Saturday at the Methodist church, the best since organization in 1911. Twenty-three young women were present, all of whom are now teaching in the county. The alumnae banquet at 1 o'clock was especially successful, 125 attending. Women of the Methodist church served the banquet. Officers were elected to serve in the alumnae association for next year. Charles L. Harper, Madison, gave the commencement address on "Our Education and Our Democracy." Education is hindered and vice versa, education and the United States are striking examples, he said, of democracy. Service was the key note of Mr. Harper's address to the graduates. He said that the school is the strongest factor in Wisconsin educational system. Miss Grace Murphy gave two delightful numbers, a group of three simple compositions, "The Joy of Teaching a Country," "The Joy of Teaching a Country," "The Joy of Teaching a Country." Model school children under the direction of Miss Marie Dobson gave three songs. Other numbers.

A hearty welcome to the class of 1920 into the alumnae association was given by Miss Dottie Billings, class of 1919. Miss Hattie Young, president of the alumnae association, presided. The senior class presented a play, "The Joy of Teaching a Country." The class of 1920, community singing, audience. Mrs. J. L. Gehr attended the dancing party in Apollo hall in the evening. So successful was the dance that it was voted to make it an annual affair, with people from all parts of the county attending.

Too Many Suitcases Spell End of Mr. Alligator
New Orleans, June 5.—Because everyone seems to want to make a suitcase of him, the alligator is being hunted for his skin. In Louisiana and protective measures are being framed by the conservation commission. Statistics compiled by port authorities here show that practically all of the alligator skins exported from the United States go through this port. The concern alone is exporting an average of ten thousand hides each month throughout the year.

AMERICANISM TALKS URGED UNDER FLAG DAY

Jefferson	1	4	.200

Watertown put an end to the winning streak of the strong Juneau team of the Central league Sunday afternoon, when they won by a score of 3 to 2. Six double plays by the Watertown aggregation gave them the jump on the league leaders. The game was featured with both teams getting five hits apiece. It was a great pitchers' battle with the Watertown mounders having an edge. Jefferson, by bunching hits in the seventh inning, managed to put across their first victory of the season when they defeated Waupun 6 to 3. The seventh inning rally netted them four runs, which led them held through out. Harshfield's double in the eighth inning was the real cause of the four-run round. "Fire Ball" Logan was sent in to relieve Scholtz for Waupun in the seventh inning.

Dodge on the mound for Whitewater, had Port Adkinson bewildered, and Whitewater won, 6 to 1. A string of seven men and allowed only five scattered hits. Menner's base running for Whitewater was the feature of the game.

U. S. To Get $500,000,000 In German Reparations

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Paris, June 7.—The share of the United States in the twenty billion marks of German reparations bonds which Germany is required to issue under the Versailles treaty, will be about $500,000,000, it was stated today. This sum, it was explained, will be for the first 20 months of occupation of the Rhineland by American troops.

Your Neighbor's Good Plan

One of your neighbors has a plan that is a sure winner.

Every week he looks over his pay check and decides how much of it he can chuck into the bank for his own comfort later on.

The balance he pays out as he needs for food and rent and clothing. But he pays his visit to the bank first of all. His small weekly deposits are always welcome—his account is growing big and he has a snug feeling that comes only to the man who is sure of his future welfare.

Samson Tractors Split Results With Logan Squares

Pitchers Work in Fine Form; Capron Is Good; Scores 6 to 5 and 4 to 1

In two of the best games they have played so far this season, the Samson Tractor ball team divided with the Logan Squares at Chicago, Saturday and yesterday. They won the first game with steady fighting by the score of 6 to 5; the second they lost 4 to 1.

One thing stands out from the games and that is that the Tractors have made a hit with the Chicago fans. At both games, the park was crowded, and yesterday there were 4,000 people packed into the stands. The style of ball which the Samsonites are displaying is the kind that city enthusiasts go out in droves to see.

Capron Shows Great Steady and smart pitcher of Samson, showed up good from the start. In yesterday's game especially, he put across some great baseball. He made two of the Iron Men's hits Sunday, one of them entering into the scoring.

All Samson pitchers showed well in the big town. Walsh pitched steadily and smart games Saturday. Yesterday Dumont was going well, despite injury to a finger on his pitching hand. He was taken out in the seventh to make way for Bill Lathrop as a pinch hitter, and Bill finished out the contest.

SATURDAY'S GAME. With "Sims" on the mound, the Samsonites fought a steady uphill battle the first day of the series. They were behind until the eighth, when a rally brought in four runs. However, Logan Square came right back and tied up the score in their half of the eighth, but in the ninth, Janesville showed over the winning run without a hit.

In getting the first run, Holland singled and went to second on a wild pitch. He scored on Perrings' double.

The four runs came when Brock singled, Holland walked and Schwind singled. Then Foreman, second baseman for Chicago, booted Perrings' liner while crying for a double play, and Breckenridge scored.

With the bags full, Dunbar hit to right, driving in two and sending Perrings to third. Beale grounded to shortstop, forcing Dunbar at second, and Perrings scored.

All out of hits, Shook got first base in the ninth when he was hit by a line drive. Walsh, in an attempt to sacrifice, bunted to the pitcher, who threw bad and both men were out. The Tractors' lead was 4 to 1.

SUNDAY'S GAME. Dumont pitched well, but Samson lost 4 to 1. Although they out-hit the Logan Squares, the Tractors could not turn their bingles. All breaks of the game were against the Iron Men, and all hard hit balls always found somebody coming in to der them. The Janesville boys played der them. They put up a strong battle and had men on bases in every inning, unfortunately being unable to shoot them around.

Dumont's finger was in bum shape when he sprained it again Saturday. Despite that, he pitched well. The Samsonites got their lone run when Lathrop, to go in as a pinch hitter, and Bill came through with a two-bagger, but it availed nothing. The Samsonites singled, followed by Shook. Lathrop bunted out a swift double scoring Capron and sending Shook to third. Two men were out when the bombardment began.

RED SOX WIN FROM STARS IN NINTH, 9-8

By just the narrow margin of one run, the Red Sox defeated the All Stars on the Samson diamond yesterday afternoon, 9 to 8. The score was tied in the last half of the eighth, 5 to 5. In their half of the ninth, the Stars pushed over one in a brave attempt to rally, and led until the Sox put across a brace of runs to win the contest.

1,500 Attend Field Day; Beloit Wins All Honors

WINNERS.
Trap Shooting.
A. C. Kelley, Beloit, first.
A. J. Wagner, Beloit, second.
I. C. Fisk, Beloit, third.
Bull Casting.
W. H. Arnold, Beloit, first.
Frank Lutz, Beloit, second.
Archie Gilbertson, Beloit, third.

Fifteen hundred people made Lake Koshkonong their gathering place yesterday and the first Annual Field day of the Rock County Game Protective association went off as a bigger success than ever anticipated. An outstanding feature of the day was the fact that almost 350 automobiles were parked in the neighborhood of Stanley Pierce's lodge on Charley Bluff. With their wives and families and friends, the sportsmen made the day the biggest in the outdoor history of the county, arriving in the early morning and remaining until about 6 o'clock in the evening.

ST. PATRICK'S WINNERS; FIRMS DONATE PRIZES

St. Patrick's got back into its old stride and defeated the Garfield school 13 to 1, thereby pushing Garfield out of first place.

Donations for prizes for the grade school league have been made by the following:
Safely Brothers, $2.50 mask; Sheldon Hardware Co., $1.25 bat and $2.50 ball; Sutherland & Son, $1.50 bat and $2.50 ball, and Premo Brothers, $3.50 first baseman's glove.

St. Patrick's 13 1 0 0 0 0 0 1

Trap-shooting and bull casting were the main events, while fishing and rifle shooting were engaged in on one side by the picnickers.

Beloit carried away all the honors in the competitive numbers. In the trapshooting, A. C. Kelley and A. J. Wagner tied for first place with a possible 87 out of 100. Kelley took off another string of 20, Kelley taking the Olin loving cup with 20 straight and Wagner making 18. L. C. Fisk was next with 15. The shooting was done in strings of 20 for sweepstakes and money on the side.

In the bull-casting, W. H. Arnold, Beloit attorney, was an easy first. Frank Lutz and Archie Gilbertson came in with the follow-ups.

About 30 took part in the shopping. Ten of them from Beloit, eight from Milton and the balance Janesville men.
